Outlook Reminder Crack+ Free For PC

- Outlook Reminder Free Download (or Outlook Notification if you prefer) is a small tool for visualizing Outlook calendar items for today and/or tomorrow. - It shows the days you have upcoming calendar items, based on today's calendar, at left mouse click on the tray icon and then enables you to change settings, including showing or hiding calendar items, change reminder settings and more. - This is for visualizing, not for reminding! - To be able to see today's and tomorrow's calendar items, you need to set the following: - Choose to show the items, or not (default). - If you chose to show the items, choose whether to show just today's items, or both today and tomorrow's items (default). - If you chose to show both, choose a setting to show items from today or tomorrow (default). - If you chose to show only today's items, choose a setting for showing only the first of multiple items of the day. If you chose to show only tomorrow's items, choose a setting for showing only the last of multiple items of the day. - You can also choose to show today's items or tomorrow's items only for recurring items. (See recurring items section in instructions below.) - To see today and tomorrow's items, you need to set the following: - Specify whether to show the items at left mouse click on the tray icon (default). - Specify whether to display a blue, red or yellow balloon at left mouse click on the tray icon (default). - If you choose to display a balloon, chose from one of the following balloon sizes: - A smaller size (default). - A smaller size and have the balloon show on a smaller window. - A larger size. - A larger size and have the balloon show on a larger window. - If you chose to have the balloon show on a smaller window, choose a smaller balloon size. - If you chose to have the balloon show on a larger window, choose a larger balloon size. If you chose to have the balloon show on a smaller window and you have multiple items with different due dates, the items with the most recent due dates are shown first. - You can also choose to show today and tomorrow's items for recurring items. If you change settings, the items will be shown the way you requested for the next time you start Outlook Reminder. In addition to showing the items, Outlook Reminder also
