I choose to play with my friend who always started to do this before, the game won't work. If I start it now without my friend, it works just one time. Could that be a glitch? Not worth the bugs 1 By Cardioid I'm not sure I'd give this game a recommendation. I spent at least 30 minutes waiting for the first helicopter to appear and a second for the first one to drop enough points for me to decide to engage it. The game is confusing and the icon for this particular helicopter is simply invisible in a corner. I can't zoom out to see it. I can't make my camera face it, no matter how many options

lyricists Big Bang is a South Korean boy band formed in 2009 by their label company YG Entertainment. The group's members were chosen through an audition process at the time their label debuted.

They debuted on February 13, 2009 with

"Song 2" in a four-member lineup.

Following the successful single, the group released their first album "The Big Bang", and their second "Bang!" both within two weeks. Since 2010, the group has released one studio album, two EPs and one compilation album per year. Big Bang has six members: G-Dragon, Taeyang, T.O.P, Daesung, Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis, with the last two as their respective primary lyricists. Their "comeback" song "Loser" was primarily written by G-Dragon, with other members contributing musical ideas and the overall production concept to the track. The penultimate track on the album "Dynamite" was written entirely by Daesung. Taeyang is known to write a few English songs, such as the lead single "Tonight" (2011), and "Day by Day"
