Pages Wednesday, March 9, 2013 March Cleanse Interview: Lukka Rudzicz Artist and Educator A reader of The Inspiration Room shared Lukka Rudzicz's work with us and we were so taken with it we had to invite her to be one of the interviewees for our inaugural March Cleanse. She was kind enough to give us her permission to share this personal story with you today. Lukka Rudzicz About the Artist: "Lukka Rudzicz" was born in September 27, 1987, in a small town near Warsaw. At the age of 5, she had her first ballet lesson. She started to teach herself as a young girl. As she was fond of painting, drawing, and literature, she started to attend art lessons at the age of 12. Two years later, she attended the art school in Warsaw. There she studied for a year at the A.B.U. School of Art. At the age of 16, Lukka abandoned her studies and started working as a model in Warsaw and surrounding towns. She worked in the modeling studios of Da'V, and Model Shops. Being fascinated by advertising, Lukka was trying to get into it at the age of 18. So she took a job as a model in a clothing store of a popular advertising agency. That was the first major advertising work of Lukka's. She worked for a year on production of commercials for the international brand market. After her first work on advertising, Lukka experienced an inspiration and decided to devote herself to painting. Now she is striving to get the best from her creative inspiration and push the limit of the possible with her paintings. She is not afraid to stretch the boundaries of the style and colors she likes. She really loves to experiment with colors, use of patterns, and experimenting with different materials. She finds inspirations in the art of Great Masters of the XXth Century. Her inspiration for her work includes acrylic painting, pen and pencil drawing, and watercolor techniques. She loves to play with paint and does not restrict her work to just paintings. She creates also artworks on glass, ceramic, paper, canvas, and wood. Today, Lukka is working on her art in Montclair, New

Taylor Swift is getting back into the romantically linked to Tom Hiddleston suit. The duo have been seen together on several occasions since the Grammy Award-winning singer ended their relationship in January. Swift and Hiddleston have been spotted at several movie premiere events in the last few months, and in the latest, Swift revealed that the two had not only been romantically linked, but the two had also dated, according to PEOPLE. "We've been seeing each other just like we were dating for a year," the "Welcome to New York" singer told PEOPLE at the International Film Music Awards held in Los Angeles. "It's only been a month since we've been seeing each other again, so I'm hoping it's not going to be six months or a year." PHOTOS: Taylor Swift's Romance Rundown Swift also made it clear she hasn't forgotten about ex-boyfriend Joe Jonas, who proposed to her in 2010. "I didn't just get five months of a great boyfriend," she said. "I got three years of a great boyfriend. I guess I'll just have to get to know him a little better." NEW YORK – The Statue of Liberty has been revived as a symbol of hope, but for some it's also a symbol of exclusion and nationalism. The idea of placing a green-leaved tree on a pedestal traditionally represents the gift of freedom that helped pave the way for the United States. But the plans for one in the nation's capital have stirred complaints from environmentalists and critics across the political spectrum who call it a symbol of capitalism at the expense of the environment. But just outside the United States lies a sculpture that's the same size as the Lady Liberty and actually has been around much longer. It's the Great Buddha of An Guo, and it's been a hit with tourists and Americans alike since it was unveiled to the public in 2006. The statue is located on a peninsula in China's Zhejiang province and is a replica of the giant Buddha carved out of a green stone. It's called the Great Buddha because of the huge face that dominates the statue. The Great Buddha of An Guo is a large replica of a giant Buddha carved out of green stone.
