If you're looking for how to draw a cartoon character, you have come to the right place. We are going to explain to you how to draw a cartoon character step by step. Once you have followed the step by step on how to draw a cartoon character, you will know why you must draw a cartoon character and what it takes to do it. 1. Draw a Cartoon Character Type The first thing to do is to define the different types of cartoon characters. You must take into consideration the whole personality and attitude of the cartoon character that you are going to draw. For instance, you can draw a silly, cute, crazy or innocent cartoon character. You can also choose which age, sex and personality type you want to draw, including a four-year-old kid, a teenager, or a grown-up one. Don't forget to include the eyes, hands, feet, clothing and any other extra details of the character that you want to draw. 2. Know the Character's Design Pattern and Features Every cartoon character should have the following design pattern: If you have no idea where to start, you can take a look at some cartoon characters you like. They have always been simple, cute and have extremely well-defined design patterns. 3.
