"There's never been a nobler cause than peace and preservation!" The Gladiators' League of Freeland stands against the war-like Empire of Prussia. But they're woefully under-manned. And their leader, the Thuggardian, has mysteriously vanished. The Empire must strike first if they are to succeed in their subjugation of the Commonwealth. And the only way to stop them is to run a gladiatorial game at the state-of-the-art arena in Prussia. And it's up to YOU to fight in the rescue! It is a slow-burn epic chapter-by-chapter campaign with intense tactical combat. It's a game about: - the struggle between the Empire and the Commonwealth - the constant enemy coming at you from all sides - the HATE you can feel for the glorified murder of the gladiators - the pride you can take in your own victory in the arena and- most importantly- the GLADIATORS Build your own gladiator class! Play around with the various body types, armor types, agility, strength, speed and other stats to see what you can come up with. As a gladiator, you're on the front lines of a war! But not just any war: you're fighting for the Commonwealth! For the peace you fought for! For the right to live as an equal! The Commonwealth is at war, but we're not just going to let them take it by force. We'll take it by LIVING, not DEADLY force! So come on! Take up your shield and your sword! And WEAR THAT HELMET! And may the HALL OF HEROES open wide for you. Cancelled/Rejected Games We did bring back the Fallout format and I can tell you that the title should NOT get cancelled again. What's new:

: Battle for Atlas The Last Strike is an upcoming fantasy action role-playing game developed by Interzone Software, a subsidiary of Treasure Co. Ltd. It is slated for release across platforms in 2019 in Japan. The sequel to Stellar Dawn Valkyrie: Battle for the Future, the game stars two new playable characters Rosaia and Sibyl. The game also features a returning character from the first game, Maiko. The main protagonist of this game is the Valkyrie Stella. In Final Fantasy XV and XV-2, Stella was one of the valkyries caught up in a war between the royal dynasty and the party with the protagonist. Stella eventually joined the royal family with Noctis in order to stop the threat of the war. In Stellar Dawn Valkyrie: Battle for Atlas, Stella and the rest of the royal family are gone as a result of the war. Stella, together with the royal family's younger sister, Rosaia, is now a commoner of Atlas, with the world being on the brink of a catastrophic war. A few days after the start of Stella's adventure as a commoner, the last valkyrie, Sibyl, found the latter in a region where the guild "Garlanders" reside. Sibyl will aid Stella in her quest in Atlas, as she wants Stella to create the legendary Atlas Draught, which can heal all wounds without side effects and work on those who have fallen in sickness and disease.

Contents Stella is a valkyrie of the royal blood, belonging to the royal family of Fraga, the capital city of Rzeczor, who can wield the weapon Oblivion Stone. Stella attended the fate-determining daily exam prior to the human-valkyrie war called the Star Derby of the Seven Stars. She was second-ranked and was the successor to the future valkyrie. However, the protagonist found Stella while taking a break in the valkyrie arena at a Stellar Scale. Since that, Stella has served as a leader of the valkyries, offering leadership and expertise on Valkyrie magic as well as advice and encouragement. In addition, Stella also assisted the protagonist in the same battlefield against the other valkyries and Ursan used by the protagonist's party. Stella was one of the valkyries caught in a war between the royal family and the party, and she eventually joined the royal family. However, the protagonist lost her memories of her past. The royal family's younger sister, Rosaia, was also
