Mr. Kim said he had never visited Donald Trump's White House and had no plans to do so, days after meeting with President Barack Obama in the United States. He said Washington's failure to get Pyongyang to "end the world's biggest threats" was "merciless". "Without massive military forces on this land, we will have to adopt different methods, the hard way," he told the annual session of the country's rubber-stamp parliament, the Supreme People's Assembly. "We do not wish for war but we are fully prepared to respond to any war with merciless strikes." Mr. Trump signed a new United Nations security council resolution on Monday that further increases sanctions on North Korea and calls for political reform and international sanctions against Pyongyang, the Reuters report said. "I want to make it crystal clear to the American bastards that we will see them off with our bare hands," he said, noting that his country would always retain its nuclear deterrent.Q: Why are there two games of Backgammon on our Apple devices? On our Apple devices, there are two games of Backgammon. One app (beta) is named backgammon, and the other (released) is named Backgammon. However, there is a third app, called Backgammon, released in 2015 which simply acts as a wrapper around the other two apps, but didn't add any new content or functionality to them. Can someone explain why this is? Why three apps and not just two? And, why are the two games on iOS, and is one of them a universal app? I have searched for answers (hence the title), but have only found support for the third app, and not for the games themselves. A: iOS 5.0 was the first time apps have been able to appear on the app store. The gap has

Is there any sites that can give you free robux? Do you know any sites that actually gives free robux? Do you have any ideas where to get free robux? If you have an account on one of the free robux sites, maybe you can give them some tips on how to make it look like you are from the US or UK if you are from the EU (like most of us are). A little bit about me, I am 16, and live on the east coast of America. I would love to go to the UK to visit my cousins but I just cant afford to. Anyways I was just wondering if there are any sites that can get rid of the speedbump of showing I am not in the EU? Ah- Welcome to RP! Sorry that happened to you, it'll be resolved by tomorrow. About the EU thing, did you mean that your country is in the EU? If so, you should be fine, you can purchase a VPN and use it to make it appear that you're in another country. It will mask your IP address so you won't be tracked. How to do that, depends entirely on your VPN provider, you'll have to ask them. For those who don't know about the EU thing, it means that all websites and companies around the EU (including us) have to have a certain privacy policy in place. It has to say how they are going to protect your personal information and it has to say what they are going to do about it. Example, if a site want to keep your information, they have to tell you that, or if they want to keep it, they have to tell you they are going to do something to keep it safe. Important to note that this only applies to EU citizens. Non-EU citizens don't have to worry about this. About VPNs, there are a few good ones out there. Some of the most popular ones are NordVPN (paid), ExpressVPN (free VPN), and Private Internet Access (PIA free, but limit you to 8 devices). I just put together a list of recommended VPNs, you can check it out if you are interested. Okay, I gotta say, I don't really understand why people are so uptight about this. The EU has nothing to do with it, every website is responsible for their own policy, and if one doesn't want to follow the new standards it
