I like to read the hagiographies of the Saints, their lives, their martyrdoms, and everything about them. I like to read about the good deeds of the Saints; the ways in which they provided a table or a meal for the poor or food for the hungry, the redemption of people, and the love they showed for their fellow man. I like to read about the Saints because they inspire me to love God more. They teach me a lesson in the greatness of God's love for us. They show me how much God loves me. And this is the most important lesson I am learning in this life. Saint of the Day for July 14: Lourdes and the Feasts of Our Lady "When there is no longer any king in the Temple, remember to be a king. With the permission of God, govern the house of God like a king." Augustine of Hippo Feast Day:July 16 (Ecclesiastical Calendar)Feast Thrown in:1933 The Feast Of Our Lady Of Lourdes The fountain of St. Mary is the highest hill in the Pyrenees; hence the name Lourdes. It is the ancient city of Larcia which was populated by the Romans, and was the birthplace of Saint Michael Archangel. Mother of God came to this place to ask her Son to heal her dear and suffering son, Saint Bernadette, who found comfort, grace, and the healing of her son's pain in the waters of the Hill of Lourdes. On May 24, 1830, after her son's health had been restored, Bernadette was filled with a revelation
